

September 2016

Dear Gedeon Ntwali, 2015, KG15149,

Congratulations on your second year of studies at Kepler! You are making tremendous progress in your work toward a US accredited degree.

As you know from previous communications, you are now required to pay a registration fee annually of 50,000 RWF. Receipt of this letter indicates you have paid your fees and are officially enrolled for the 2016-17 academic year.

Your fees for this year are:

- Academic Services – 800,000 RWF
  - o Your academic services include access to CfA, Canvas and other student platforms, all course materials, access to the campus and Internet on campus, health insurance, access to office hours, the nurse and the counselor, a kepler.org email address
- Housing - 675,000 RWF
  - o If you have opted into housing, your services include a space in a shared room, furniture in the house, including a bed and mattress, breakfast, lunch and dinner throughout the year, housekeeper/cook, electricity and water up to 2,000 RWF per month (rent is about 50% of these costs, meals at 40% and other costs are the remaining 10%)
- Stipends - 300,000 RWF
  - o Your stipend is 25,000 RWF per month
- Kiva loan - Yes
  - o Monthly payment for laptop of 5,000 RWF

In accordance, with previous agreements,

- You have a balance of 700,000 RWF for your first year of study from Aug. 2015-July 2016

By completing this agreement, you agree to continue abiding by Kepler policies and demonstrating the Kepler traits. Please sign and date the agreement below to confirm your enrollment in this academic year and your understanding of the terms.

We wish you best of luck as you work toward the completion of your degree.

Sincerely,
Kepler Administration

Enrollment Contract

I, Gedeon Ntwali, accept admission for the 2016-17 academic year into the Kepler program on this date of 26/09/2016 and agree to the following statements:

- I understand that I must pay registration fees annually each year by the deadline and will face the consequences set forth in the handbook if these are not paid on time, including not being able to study if the lack of payment is long term
- I understand that I can pay my fees in full at the start of each academic year for a 10% discount.
- I understand that I can begin payments on my current balance at Kepler under a 0% interest program. This will remain in effect until the Kepler student loan program is announced. Any remaining balance at that time will be transferred to the loan program.
- If I request a loan program or deferred tuition of my academic fees, I hereby do understand the loan agreement is legally binding and must be adhered to or I will face legal consequences. I understand that this will mean that I agree to the Kepler student loan program as structured including fees, interest and terms. I understand this program is to be announced in the 2016-17 academic year.
- I understand that the student handbook provides guidance on the actions and policies that are important to my success. I have read the handbook and understand the content.
- I hereby commit to follow the policies set forth in the handbook and any additional policies set forth by administration, abide by the Kepler traits and fulfill all academic requirements.
- I understand that my behavior in the workforce is also regulated by the Kepler policies and I must adhere to the policies in the internship and employment guidelines
- I understand that by signing this contract, I am giving my rights to Kepler to share my likeness and biographical information for a variety of purposes. The content can include, but is not limited to: my personal profile, photos, audio and video recordings, my name, etc. I understand this content will be used for outreach to supporters, partners and the general public. Content sharing may include postings on the Kepler website, social media, print materials, newspapers, magazines, online news sites and other public venues. This is effective as of my date of enrollment.

- I understand that if I drop out of Kepler before the completion of my studies, I will have a remaining balance owed to Kepler that I am legally bound to pay back upon my leaving the program.
- I understand that I must return all Kepler property, including my laptop, if I leave Kepler before completing the payment of my laptop loan or if I don't have a laptop loan before completion of my degree.
- I understand that if I am an international or refugee student, I am not eligible for mutuelle de sante and therefore Kepler can reimburse me up to 70,000 RWF per year for medical expenses
- I understand the cost of attending Kepler each year is more than $5,000 USD and that donors around the world are supporting my studies to keep my tuition affordable.
- I understand that I can opt out of student housing and/or stipends after Year 1 and must do so by the deadlines indicated in the student handbook.
- I understand that my academic fees will remain at the rate of 800,000 RWF per year until the completion of my BA degree.
